Speaking on the launch of new flights and the addition of the new destination, Aditya Ghosh, President, IndiGo said, "We are extremely pleased about adding Port Blair as our 41st destination. It is going to be an important part of our destination network, catering to the needs of both business as well as leisure travellers, looking to embrace the deep blue waters. In addition, IndiGo will connect holy city of Varanasi with Hyderabad with daily non-stop service. Clearly, these are exciting times for the aviation industry and for us, as we are now in the 11th year of operation. We thank our flyers for their unflinching support in these past 10 years and we will continue to provide them an on time, hassle free and affordable flying experience."

On the international sector, IndiGo in August launched first daily non-stop flight between Chandigarh - Dubai and second daily non-stop on Kochi - Dubai sector. On the domestic front, IndiGo also recently introduced additional frequencies in Agartala - Kolkata sector, 1st non-stop flight on the Kolkata-Visakhapatnam-Kolkata sector and 5th daily non-stop flight between Kolkata and Hyderabad.

To ensure a hassle-free and comfortable journey for its fliers, IndiGo serves a wide range of food and beverage items and also offers an attractive collection of desirable in-flight merchandise for sale at compelling prices. It also gives its passengers the freedom to pre-assign seats and choose seats with extra legroom and avoid check-in lines with the use of Q-busters. Additionally, IndiGo is the only Indian airline today with a 'boarding ramp'. With the recent launch of Fare Types i.e. 'Flexible Fare' and 'Lite Fare', IndiGo plans to strengthen its customer experience allowing passengers to avail much wider choices while travelling with IndiGo.
