

IndiGo provides enhanced connectivity across India; launches new flights connecting key cities

- Effective September 2016, 6E launches new flights connecting Delhi to Kolkata and regional destinations – Bhubaneswar, Vadodara, Chandigarh, Jammu, Ranchi and Raipur
- With 112 Airbus A320 aircraft, 6E will now offer 823 daily flights connecting 40 destinations

National, September 14, 2016: Underlining the robust demand in the domestic sectors including tier 2 & 3 cities, IndiGo, India's favourite on-time performer has announced the launch of many new flights on its network. Effective September 12, 2016, India's largest and fastest growing carrier will operate additional flights connecting Delhi with major cities - Bhubaneswar, Vadodara, Chandigarh and Jammu. IndiGo will also introduce additional frequencies between Delhi & Kolkata, Delhi & Ranchi and Kolkata & Bhubaneswar sectors effective September 15, 2016.

The new flights resonate the airline's expansion plan, and the month-on-month growth that IndiGo has seen in the domestic skies. Commencing on September 12 and 15, these new services will further consolidate IndiGo's position as the fastest growing airline in India, 823 daily flights connecting 40 destinations. Both corporate and leisure customers travelling from north, south and eastern destinations will now have the opportunity to experience the hassle-free, on-time performance that IndiGo is synonymous with.
