

IndiGo leading the way in job creation; conducts a free exam for A320 CPL level program

National, March 11, 2018: IndiGo, India's largest and fastest growing carrier today conducted the exams for IndiGo Junior First Officer A320 Cadet program. Over a 1000 Commercial Pilots License holder across India appeared for the exam conducted in Delhi, Mumbai and Bengaluru.

With an aim to provide a fair opportunity to bright pilots, IndiGo has been regularly conducting an All India screening at no additional cost for the ab initio Pilot.

The IndiGo Cadet and CPL Program has so far created over 1200 new airline pilots from all corners of the country. The JFO program for A320 flying permit is eligible for applicants aged between 18 and 40 years holding a Commercial Pilot License (CPL). The exam saw overwhelming participation not just from metros but tier II cities as well such as Nagpur, Coimbatore, Kolkata and Jaipur.

Aditya Ghosh President and Whole Time Director IndiGo commented saying, "We are proud to help the aspiring student inch closer towards their dreams of flying high. The anxious smiles of hope on their faces and the glitter of enthusiasm in their eyes as they entered the examination is a true motivation for us to create more such opportunities for the bright talent of our country. Number of women applicants is also rising consistently with 20% women applying this year as against 15% last time. We hope to welcome this young talent on board very soon. "
