

IndiGo takes its FitToFly programme to Jammu; Inaugurates gym for police personnel

Designed for the police personnel, FitToFly is an ongoing flagship initiative under IndiGoReach – company's CSR programme

Jammu, May 27, 2017: IndiGo, India's largest and fastest growing carrier, today opened a fully equipped gym for the Police officials in Jammu. With an endeavour to infuse IndiGo fitness belief and inspire the Police personnel to adopt a more physically active lifestyle, this gym has been set up within the office premise of the local police station near the airport in Jammu.

Appreciating the efforts of IndiGo, Dr. S D Singh, Inspector General of Police, Jammu said, "Becoming health conscious is indeed a lifestyle necessity. On behalf of my team, I thank IndiGo leadership for translating this idea into reality and envisioning police personnel as partners to promote this fitness awareness around".

Commenting on this initiative, Mr. Aditya Ghosh, President and Whole-Time Director, IndiGo said, "We are absolutely delighted to see our FitToFly programme being extended to different parts of the country. After a successful launch of FitToFly gyms in twelve cities, we are happy to collaborate with the Jammu police force. At IndiGo, we feel for our police force who work day and night to provide us the security we need. Setting up gyms for them is an important move to encourage them to start making choices to live a healthier life by choosing to be holistically fit."

Mr Ghosh further added, "For us at IndiGo, being healthy is not just about physical fitness, but it's also about creating fitness into everything we do – be it our operations, customer relations or financial stability of the firm. We believe it starts with being fit as individuals. With the launch of this gym in Jammu, we hope to stimulate a healthy lifestyle amongst our police personnel and take this FitToFly initiative to a newer level."

The FitToFly gyms will be fully equipped with multi-purpose machines, cross trainer, treadmill, bench press and other facilities. As part of this multi-city campaign to promote fitness and healthy lifestyle - IndiGo launched its first gym at Jaipur international airport, in February this year followed by Gurugram, Dimapur, Chennai, Dehradun, Patna, Bhubaneswar, Raipur, Goa, Udaipur, Guwahati, Indore and Varanasi.
