National, July 20, 2017: India's youngest and the coolest airline – IndiGo, today hosted the most loved "TG Connect Conclave" in Bengaluru this evening at St. Johns Auditorium, Bengaluru. In its zest to inspire the youth and particularly those who aspire to embrace fitness as a lifestyle – "TG Connect Conclave" roped in the renowned and globally recognised fitness enthusiasts including, Kai Greene, American IFBB professional bodybuilder and personal trainer, Ms Satya Sinha, Founder and Director, Chisel Dreams, Mr Amaresh Ojha, Gympik Bengaluru and the team IndiGo - who unfolded their stirring fitness stories echoing a healthy lifestyle as the necessity for a better tomorrow. To celebrate the feat of fitness journeys made by those who displayed their passion and commitment to stay fit - fitness enthusiasts gave a special call-out to the specially-abled athletes from Bengaluru.

Being on his 'Inspire India tour', Kai Greene, American IFBB professional bodybuilder and personal trainer said, "It has always been a privilege to visit India. I am not only overwhelmed to see the passion in people to embrace fitness, but seeing some of the specially abled people at the stage as fitness ambassadors - it stirred my heart. It's great to see Tarun Gill and Aditya Ghosh coming together and take fitness to newer levels in their country. Thank You for having me at the TG Connect Conclave – this has made my 'Inspire India tour' even more special..."

Mr. Tarun Gill, India's leading fitness influencer who is also heading TG Connect said, "Touching lives through fitness is not just a motto but it's like living the dream each day. We saw over 700 people at the TG Connect Conclave, and together witnessing their commitment towards achieving fitness goals was simply encouraging and inspiring. I personally acknowledge Aditya Ghosh who made me believe that chasing my dream was worth it."

Mr. Aditya Ghosh, President and Whole-Time, Director, IndiGo, said, "TG Connect Conclave in Bengaluru marks an extension of IndiGo's commitment towards its flagship FitToFly programme we started in December 2016. For us at IndiGo, being healthy is not just about physical fitness, but it's also about creating fitness into everything we do – be it our operations, customer relations or financial stability of the firm. We believe it starts with being fit as individuals. As a young brand, it has been our endeavour to stay fit and I hope with this commitment we together embark upon this journey to see a new India, embracing healthy lifestyle, a healthy you."

IndiGo collaborated with Tarun Gill in December 2016 to launch FitToFly, a year-long programme that aims to create awareness around fitness and a healthy lifestyle. For more updates on Fit to fly campaign, please visit facebook.com/goindigo.in
