

IndiGo connects Tirupati to Domestic and International destinations

Effective 7th January, 6E to connect Tirupati to Hyderabad, Bengaluru, Dubai, Singapore, Delhi, Mumbai among other major cities

National, December 08, 2017: Strengthening its positioning further as India's largest and fastest growing low-cost carrier, IndiGo today has announced the expansion of its regional network by adding Tirupati on its network effective January 07, 2018. Tirupati will be connected by three daily non-stop flights to Hyderabad and double daily non-stop flights to Bengaluru. Apart from this Tirupati will also be connected to many new cities on IndiGo's existing network of Airbus 320s and ATRs. IndiGo will connect Tirupati to Delhi, Mumbai, Kolkata, Dubai, Singapore among other cities via Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Chennai and Mangalore.

With over 950 daily flights connecting 47 destinations, these new flights will enable corporate and leisure travelers to experience IndiGo's unmatched on-time performance and hassle-free service.

Speaking to the media at Tirupati today, Mr. Sanjay Kumar, Chief Commercial Officer, IndiGo said, "With amplifying demand from regional sectors, we are pleased to announce the introduction of these new connections within and beyond India. We are looking at providing affordable fares on these flights for 6E travelers."
