

IndiGo awarded by DIAL for 'Safety Excellence' at Indira Gandhi International Airport

- The low-cost carrier recognized for being the best safety partner during the 'Safety Awareness Week' from December 17 to December 21, 2018

National, December 27, 2018 – India's largest domestic carrier, IndiGo, has been awarded by DIAL in recognition of the airline's outstanding contribution to airside safety at the Delhi International Airport Limited (DIAL). DIAL started "Safety Awareness workshop" across all three terminals at IGI Airport for all domestic airlines. As part of this "safety awareness drive" which was observed from December 17 to December 21, IndiGo staff went all out and participated in street plays and well-illustrated safety checks and Foreign Object Detection (FOD) removal process. This is IndiGo's second recognition for airside safety that the airline received from GMR in 2016.

Mr. Wolfgang Prock-Schauer Chief Operating Officer, IndiGo said, "We are thankful to DIAL for organising the safety awareness drive and recognising IndiGo as the best safety partner amongst other domestic airlines. We believe safety is the industry's number one priority and to ensure safe operations, we will continue to sensitize the airport operations staff both through these collaborative efforts and internal corporate training workshops".
