

MakeMyTrip partners with IndiGo to offer exclusive charter services to Phuket

National, November 10, 2021: MakeMyTrip, India's leading online travel company, in partnership with India's leading airline, IndiGo, has launched exclusive charter services to Phuket. As the pandemic eases and countries begin welcoming back Indian travellers, MakeMyTrip together with IndiGo, is making travelling to the island easy while Phuket continues to remain closed for direct flyers from India. This industry-first and one-of-a-kind package has been packaged with various travel benefits, value adds and unmissable offers.

These charter holiday packages have been designed and packaged to offer unique leisure and stay experiences in Phuket. As part of the package, the company will offer end-to-end travel services including airport transfers, Certificate of Entry (CoE) assistance, early check-in, and check-out at one of the premium properties, travel insurance, return RT-PCR assistance among others. With packages starting at only INR 39,999, travellers will be able to make a booking at a special price of INR 1000 only. Package inclusions are detailed city tour, visit to Coral and Racha Island by speedboat, day trip to Dolphins Bay, to name a few.

Mr. Sanjay Kumar, Chief Commercial and Strategy Officer, IndiGo, said, "We have been innovating since the last year to provide a comfortable travel experience and more options to our customers. It's our pleasure to collaborate with MakeMyTrip to provide this unique package with charter flights to Phuket, one of the favorite holiday destinations for Indians. We have witnessed an increased demand for leisure travel and this product will offer a unique opportunity for Indian travellers to celebrate the holiday season in style. We are committed to providing an on-time, affordable, safe and hassle-free travel experience to the customers onboard our lean clean flying machines."
